The Fall Business Better than Ever.—Judging by the business pouring in upon the past week or two, the present Fall will be the most active and lucrative enjoyed for several years. Merchants in nearly every State in the Union are daily coming in, and almost invariably order larger quantities of PRINTING &c. ever before. All of the Machinery of the METROPOLITAN STEAM PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT has been recently in motion, and such has been the completeness of our arrangements, that although called upon to execute over 500 hundred orders, yet not a single customer has been disappointed.

We have just issued a splendid Series of NEW DESIGNS for STORE BILLS, and invited the attention of MERCHANTS from every section to our magnificient Gallery of Engravings, surpassing in number and beauty any collection in the world. Remember, we execute Every Description of Printing, from the smallest Card to the Largest Bill or Book in the world, in the quickest possible time, and at the LOWEST CASH PRICES. BAKER & GODWIN, Printers, Tribune Building, corner Nassau and Spruce-st.

Proclamation.—H'ness, on the 27th July, 1855, Issued by the then acting Mayor, and by with the consent of the Board of Commissioners of Health, issued a proclamation declaring the ports of Norfolk and Portsmouth in the State of Virginia, closed, and that all vessels arriving at or passing through those ports should be confined to Quarantine until the first day of September, 1855.

Whereas, The Board of Health has a resolution adopted the 27th instant, declared that the means of preventing the spread of the disease, as far as possible, was to confine the port of Norfolk, it therefore known to all men, that by virtue of the power in me vested, I, Fernando Wood, Mayor of the City of New York, do hereby order, that the time of said Quarantine shall be extended until the last day of November, 1855, and continue with full force and effect until the first day of September, 1856.

Given under my hand and seal at the Mayor's office, in our City of New York, August 29, 1855.

FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor.
